Mangaltai Ramchandra Jagtap College, Umbraj

Department of History

2026-27

Report on Poster Presentation on the Occasion of August Kranti Day

Objective	Outcome
1. To create awareness among students about the historical significance of the August Revolution (Quit India Movement) of 1942. 2. To understand the causes, major events, leaders, and consequences of the August Revolution. 3. To highlight the contribution of freedom fighters, students, youth, women, farmers, and the common people to the freedom struggle. 4. To develop students' research, creativity, critical thinking, and presentation skills through poster making. 5. To inspire students to uphold the values of patriotism, national unity, democracy, freedom, and responsible citizenship.	1 Students gained a better understanding of the historical significance of the August Revolution and the Quit India Movement of 1942. 2. Students developed awareness about the contributions and sacrifices of freedom fighters and the common people in India's freedom struggle. 3. Students improved their research, creativity, critical thinking, and presentation skills through poster preparation and presentation. 4. Students developed greater appreciation for the values of patriotism, national unity, freedom, and democracy. 5. The activity encouraged students to develop an interest in historyand a sense of responsible citizenship.

The Department of History of Mangtatai Ramchandra Jagtap College, Ubraj, organized a poster presentation on the occasion of 9th August Kranti Day on the theme "History of the August Revolution and Its Contribution to the Indian Freedom Struggle." The main purpose of the activity was to create awareness among students about the historical importance of the August Revolution and the Quit India Movement of 1942. The programme also aimed to develop students' interest in history, research skills, creativity, critical thinking, and presentation abilities through activity-based learning.The date 9th August 1942 holds a significant place in the history of India's freedom struggle. The Quit India Movement, launched under the leadership of Mahatma Gandhi, marked a decisive phase in the struggle against British rule. The movement reflected the strong determination of the Indian people to achieve independence. Keeping this historical importance in view, the Department of History organized the poster presentation to help students understand the background, nature, development, and significance of the August Revolution.

The programme was inaugurated by the Chief Guest, Prof. Dr. Ajitkumar Dadaso Jadhav, Head of the Department of History, Arts, Commerce and Science College, Nagthane. The programme was attended by the Principal, Dr. S. M. Gawade, Head of the Department of History Mrs. S. S. Lad, Prof. Mrs. S. B. Sargar, Prof. Dr. R. J. Lokhande, Prof. N. P. Jamdade, and all the faculty members of the college. At the beginning of the programme, respectful homage was paid to the known and unknown freedom fighters who sacrificed their lives for India's independence.A total of 40 students from B.A. Part I, Part II, and Part III actively participated in the poster presentation. The students prepared informative and attractive posters on various topics related to the August Revolution. These included the beginning of the Quit India Movement, its historical background, Mahatma Gandhi and the Quit India Movement, the message of "Do or Die," the role of students, youth and women, Aruna Asaf Ali, Usha Mehta and the Congress Radio, Jayaprakash Narayan, Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia, the freedom struggle in Maharashtra, Krantisinh Nana Patil and the Prati Sarkar of Satara, the participation of farmers, workers and common people, British repression, and the causes and consequences of the August Revolution.The students used historical photographs, portraits, maps, timelines, slogans, important dates, and reference information to make their posters attractive and meaningful. Each student explained the historical background and significance of the selected topic. The activity provided students with an opportunity to collect information, analyze historical events, organize their ideas, and present them confidently before an audience. Thus, the programme promoted visual, experiential, creative, and research-oriented learning.

The Chief Guest, Prof. Dr. Ajitkumar Dadaso Jadhav, appreciated the students' efforts and creativity. He emphasized that the August Revolution was one of the most important phases of the Indian freedom struggle and highlighted the collective contribution of national leaders, students, youth, women, farmers, workers, and ordinary citizens. He encouraged students to study history beyond examinations and understand the causes, consequences, and values associated with historical events.The Principal, Dr. S. M. Gawade, appreciated the initiative of the Department of History and emphasized the importance of innovative academic activities in developing students' creativity, confidence, communication skills, and national consciousness. He also reminded students of their responsibility to respect freedom, democracy, national unity, and constitutional values.

Overall, the poster presentation was an informative, inspiring, and academically enriching activity. It helped students develop research skills, creativity, critical thinking, communication, presentation skills, teamwork, and historical awareness. Most importantly, the activity strengthened students' understanding of the sacrifices, courage, patriotism, and determination of the freedom fighters. The programme successfully transformed historical knowledge into a meaningful learning experience and inspired students to become responsible citizens who value freedom, democracy, national unity, and social responsibility.

Head
Department of History

I/C Principal
Mahavidyalaya, Umbraj
Tal. Karad, Dist. Satara.